

Details are important. They bring a story to life.

Think about WHERE your story happens and jot down every tiny thing you can about that place.

What do the frogs sound like when they sing at night?
What do the houses look like? Do they have lots of steps?
What colour are the clouds when a storm comes?
What kind of flowers grow in the forest? Can you smell them?